UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RICHARD POHLY.

Plaintiff,

V.

INTUITIVE SURGICAL, INC., a Delaware corporation headquartered in California,

Defendant.

No. 3:15-cv-04113 MEJ

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

Judge: Hon. Maria-Elena James

Complaint Filed: September 9, 2015

1 WHEREAS pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26, the Court and Plaintiff Richard 2 Pohly (“Pohly”) and Defendant Intuitive Surgical, Inc. (“Intuitive Surgical”) deem it appropriate to 3 limit the disclosure of certain confidential information, as set forth below, and the parties to this 4 Action, by counsel, have stipulated and agreed to give effect to the stipulations set forth below.

5 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

6 1. Definitions.

7 1.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 8 information or items under this Order.

9 1.2 “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION”: is information relating to a party’s or non-10 party’s trade secrets; research and development information; design and specification information, 11 including without limitation information regarding Intuitive Surgical’s robotically-assisted surgery 12 product; confidential business or proprietary information; internal documents regarding marketing 13 or training methods (marketing and training information provided to the public is not deemed 14 confidential); internal sales; financial information or data; technical specifications and mechanical 15 or product information deemed proprietary; manufacturing processes; distribution processes; 16 internal competitive marketing and sales information; and/or personal information.

17 1.3 Designated In-House Counsel: In-House Counsel who seek access to “HIGHLY 18 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY” information in this matter.

19 1.4 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 20 the litigation who (1) has been retained to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this 21 action, (2) is not a past or current employee of a Party or a current employee of a Party’s 22 competitor, and (3) at the time of retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or 23 a Party’s competitor.

24 1.5 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY INFORMATION:
25 extremely sensitive CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION the disclosure of which to another Party or 26 Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less 27 restrictive means.

28

1 1.6 In-House Counsel: attorneys who are employees or a Party or Non-Party to this 2 action, not including Outside Counsel or any other outside counsel.

3 1.7 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a party this action but have 4 been retained to represent or advise a Party or Non-Party to this action.

5 1.8 Protected Material: information or tangible things designated as “CONFIDENTIAL
 6 INFORMATION” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

7 2. Coverage. The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only CONFIDENTIAL 8 INFORMATION (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from 9 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of 10 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by 11 parties or their counsel that might reveal CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. However, the 12 protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the public domain.

13 3. Discovery Material. Documents, discovery responses, including interrogatory responses, 14 responses to requests for admission, etc., deposition testimony, photographs, videotapes, data and 15 other materials, or portions thereof, produced in discovery in this Action by any party or non-party 16 (the “Designating Party”) may be designated as “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION” if the 17 Designating Party reasonably and in good faith believes they contain trade secrets or confidential 18 research, development, commercial, personal, financial, or proprietary information, medical 19 records, or other confidential information not already part of the public domain, including all 20 material, data, and information obtained, derived, or generated from such materials. Such 21 information shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION” and shall be subject to the 22 provisions of this Protective Order (the “Protective Order”). Any party in receipt of such produced 23 materials shall be responsible for safeguarding all produced materials and information designated 24 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and, among other things, agrees not to host or post the 25 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION on unencrypted, cloud-based data share services utilizing 26 caching technology such as Dropbox.

27 4. Designation as Attorney’s Eyes Only. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION which is of 28 such a competitively sensitive nature that its disclosure to a party or a non-party would cause the

1 Designating Party a substantial risk of serious competitive harm may be designated "HIGHLY 2 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY." CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION 3 designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" is subject to the 4 provisions of this Order governing CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, except that its disclosure 5 shall be restricted as stated in paragraph 8.2, below.

6 Designation Process. The designation of Protected Material described in paragraph 1 7 above shall be made by stamping or labeling the document or portions thereof containing 8 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION with the legend "CONFIDENTIAL-SUBJECT TO 9 PROTECTIVE ORDER" or, as appropriate, "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY'S 10 EYES ONLY" prior to its production or, if inadvertently produced without a legend, by furnishing 11 written notice of the inadvertent production specifically identifying documents which should have 12 contained the legend. Protected Material may also be designated:

- 13 (a) in answers to interrogatories and responses to requests for admissions containing CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by including the words "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION/SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER" or, as appropriate,
 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" to each page that contains CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Designating Party must clearly identify the specific portions in the specific answers to interrogatories or responses to requests for admissions containing Protected Material; and
- 21 (b) as to Protected Material disclosed by a third party, by notifying all parties within twenty (20) days of receipt of such information that the information, or portions thereof, contain Protected Material .

24 Depositions and Other Pretrial and Trial Proceedings. Protected Material may be used 25 or marked as exhibits in depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings but shall remain subject to 26 this Protective Order. In the case of deposition testimony or testimony made during hearing, 27 counsel must note on the record that responses to particular questions or series of questions contain 28 or may contain Protected Material and request the reporter to mark the first page of the deposition

1 or hearing transcript as "CONTAINING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION." Parties may also 2 designate portions of the transcript as Protected Material within twenty (20) days of receipt of the 3 transcript by giving written notification to the opposing party and the court reporter. If a non-4 party's Protected Material is used in any manner at a deposition, the portions of the transcript 5 referencing such information shall be designated "CONFIDENTIAL." Only those portions of the 6 transcript designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be considered CONFIDENTIAL
7 INFORMATION or, as appropriate, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY.
8 Until expiration of the 20-day period, the entire deposition will be treated as HIGHLY 9 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY under this Protective Order. Attendance at 10 portions of depositions at which Protected Material may be disclosed shall be limited to those 11 persons authorized to view it under paragraph 8 below and only after the person[s] follow the 12 procedure described in paragraph 7 below.

13 7. Authorized and Unauthorized Uses of Protected Material. Protected Material shall be 14 kept confidential, shall not be used, directly or indirectly, by any party for any business, 15 commercial or competitive purpose, or for any purpose other than the preparation and trial of this 16 Action in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order without the express written 17 consent of counsel for the Designating Party or by order of the Court.

- 18 (a) Nothing herein shall prevent the parties from publicly disclosing any of their own 19 Protected Material, as they deem appropriate. Such disclosures shall not affect any 20 confidential designation made pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order so long 21 as the disclosure is made in a manner which is reasonably calculated to maintain the 22 confidentiality of the information.
- 23 (b) To avoid security risks currently inherent in certain current technologies and 24 facilities' compliance with the terms of this Protective Order, and unless the party 25 whose Protected Material is at issue agrees otherwise in writing, all persons given 26 access to Protected Material as outlined in paragraph 8 below, shall keep all such 27 information confidential from all other persons except as specifically provided in 28 this Protective Order.

1 8. Access to and Use of Protected Material.

- 2 8.1 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION may be disclosed only to the following persons
- 3 (a) Parties and parties' counsel and the clerical, technical, paralegal, and secretarial
- 4 staff employed or retained by such counsel and the parties' insurers, if any, who
- 5 need to review such information in connection with this Action;
- 6 (b) Experts, consultants, and case-specific medical treaters whose assistance is
- 7 necessary to assist counsel of record in the preparation of this case, or to testify in
- 8 this action provided any such persons follow the procedure described in paragraphs
- 9 9 and 10 below;
- 10 (c) A deponent or a witness at trial or hearing, provided there is a reasonable basis to
- 11 believe the disclosure is necessary to prepare the witness or that the witness will
- 12 give relevant testimony regarding the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. If a party
- 13 wishes to show CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to a deponent in
- 14 preparation for a deposition, the party must follow the procedure described in
- 15 paragraph 9 before disclosing the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. If a party
- 16 wishes to disclose CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to a deponent under this
- 17 provision, notice and an opportunity to object must be afforded to the Designating
- 18 Party. If the disclosure is at a deposition, notice may be given at the deposition;
- 19 (d) The Court or any Court personnel, including court reporters;
- 20 (e) A person identified in the document as a subject of the communication, or having
- 21 authored or previously received the document;
- 22 (f) Copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of
- 23 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, provided that counsel for the party retaining
- 24 the copy or imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any
- 25 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to third parties and to immediately return all
- 26 originals and copies of any CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION; and
- 27 (g) Any person mutually agreed upon among the parties.

1 8.2 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY information may only be 2 disclosed to the following:

- 3 (a) Outside Counsel and the clerical, technical, paralegal, and secretarial staff employed 4 or retained by such counsel;
- 5 (b) Experts, consultants, and case-specific medical treaters whose assistance is 6 necessary to assist Outside Counsel in the preparation of this case, or to testify in 7 this action;
- 8 (c) One Designated In-House Counsel tasked with the primary responsibility of 9 supervising this litigation of the party that received the information to whom 10 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation. Prior to disclosure of 11 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY INFORMATION to 12 Designated In-House Counsel, Outside Counsel for the party that employs the 13 Designated In-House Counsel shall obtain a written declaration from the Designated 14 In-House Counsel that attests that Designated In-House Counsel will not use any
 16 received in this litigation for any purpose other than the litigation.
- 17 (d) Employees of a party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation 18 and who have previously worked on projects with the Disclosing Party utilizing the 19 technology that is the subject of the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S 20 EYES ONLY INFORMATION. Prior to disclosure of HIGHLY 21 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY INFORMATION to such 22 employees, Outside Counsel for the party that employs the employees to whom 23 disclosure of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY 24 INFORMATION is sought shall obtain a written declaration from such employees
 25 that they will not use any HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES 26 ONLY INFORMATION received in this litigation for any purpose other than the 27 litigation.
- 28 (e) The Court or any Court personnel, including court reporters;

- 1 (f) A person identified in the document as a subject of the communication, or having 2 authored or previously received the document;
- 3 (g) Copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 4 Protected Material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging
 5 service instructs the service not to disclose any Protected Material to third parties 6 and to immediately return all originals and copies of any Protected Material; and
- 7 (h) Any person mutually agreed upon between the Designating Party and the party
 8 seeking to disclose HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY 9 INFORMATION.

10. Persons Bound by Order. Before being given access to any Protected Material, each 11 person to whom it will be disclosed, other than the court and court personnel, shall be advised of 12 the terms of this Protective Order, shall be given a copy of this Protective Order, and shall agree in 13 writing to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order by signing a copy of the attached 14 Acknowledgment (Exhibit A). Counsel for each party shall maintain a list of all persons to whom 15 they or their client(s) have provided any Protected Material, which list shall be available for 16 inspection by the Court.

17. Collateral Litigants. This Protective Order does not allow for the automatic disclosure of 18 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to attorneys for plaintiffs in other lawsuits asserting claims 19 against Intuitive Surgical in connection with their da Vinci surgeries relating to the same surgical 20 procedure and version of EndoWrist® instruments (“Collateral Litigants”). To the extent Pohly 21 wishes to share CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION with Collateral Litigants, the identity of such 22 Collateral Litigants and their attorneys must be identified to the Designating Party in writing in 23 advance of disclosure. Upon receiving written notice of intended disclosure, the Designating Party 24 shall have ten (10) court days to object to the disclosure of the documents to the Collateral 25 Litigants or their attorneys identified by Pohly's counsel to whom the Designating Party contends 26 disclosure is inappropriate under the Protective Order and state the grounds for the objection. If 27 the parties cannot resolve the dispute, the Designating Party may seek resolution of its objection by 28 this Court, which will decide whether to modify the Protective Order so that such identified

1 Collateral Litigants are not precluded from obtaining the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. The 2 Collateral Litigants and/or Plaintiff have the burden to demonstrate the relevance of the 3 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION to the collateral proceedings and its general discoverability
 4 therein. Any dispute regarding the ultimate discoverability of the CONFIDENTIAL 5 INFORMATION in the other lawsuits pressed by Collateral Litigants must be resolved by the 6 presiding judges in the respective collateral courts.

7 11. Non-Disclosure to Competitors. No Protected Material shall be disclosed to any person 8 who, upon reasonable and good faith inquiry, could be determined to be a Competitor of the 9 Designating Party, unless plaintiff has retained such person as a consultant or expert in this Action, 10 but then only after notifying the Designating Party of the person retained in advance of any such 11 disclosure and allowing the Designating Party ten (10) court days to move the court for an order 12 preventing the disclosure of such Protected Material to the Competitor. If the Designating Party 13 moves for an order to prevent disclosure under this Paragraph, no disclosure shall be made until the 14 Court rules on the motion. With respect to Intuitive Surgical, "Competitor" shall mean any person 15 or entity engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing and/or selling robotic surgical 16 systems, instruments for robotic surgical systems or component parts for use with such systems and 17 instruments, including but not limited to any director, officer, employee or consultant of such 18 Competitor entity. Intuitive Surgical shall not introduce evidence of the disqualification of any of 19 plaintiff's proposed experts under this section at trial. Any person who receives Confidential 20 Information under this Protective Order shall be prohibited from using it to compete with the 21 Designating Party.

22 12. Use of Confidential Information at Trial. Information identified as "CONFIDENTIAL 23 INFORMATION" in accordance with this Protective Order may be disclosed in testimony at the 24 trial of this Action or in other proceedings in this matter, subject to the rules of evidence and to 25 such further orders this Court may enter.

26 13. Use of Confidential Information In Court. PROTECTED MATERIAL is not to be filed 27 with the Court, except when required in connection with motions or other matters pending before 28 the Court and subject to compliance with the procedures set forth in with Local Rule 79-5 as

1 modified by this Paragraph. Prior to filing, the party seeking to file PROTECTED MATERIAL in 2 support of a motion or other matter pending before the Court must first notify all parties of its 3 intent to file PROTECTED MATERIAL and provide a copy of the motion and PROTECTED 4 MATERIAL to the Designating Party. The Designating Party or the party who has a right to the 5 subject matter of the PROTECTED MATERIAL will have seven (7) court days to file an 6 administrative motion to seal in accordance with Civil Local Rule 7-11. Any response or reply to 7 the motion to seal, or underlying motion, shall also be filed in accordance with Civil Local Rule 7-8 11. If no motion is filed within seven (7) court days, the party intending to use the PROTECTED 9 MATERIAL may file its motion and PROTECTED MATERIAL with the Court. If a motion to 10 seal is filed, the parties shall wait for the Court's determination of the motion to seal before taking 11 further action. In the event that a party determines it needs to file PROTECTED MATERIAL in 12 response to a non-dispositive motion or to file PROTECTED MATERIAL in reply in support of a 13 non-dispositive motion, the parties will agree to adjust the hearing date to allow sufficient time for 14 the motion to seal to be at issue before the Court on or before the hearing date on the underlying 15 motion.

16 14. Inadvertent Failure to Designate as Confidential Information. Inadvertent failure to 17 designate documents or information as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION shall not constitute a 18 waiver of the Designating Party's claim to confidentiality, provided that the Designating Party shall 19 promptly notify the receiving party in writing within ten (10) court days of such discovery. Upon 20 receipt of such notice, each receiving party shall treat the material identified in the notice as 21 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION, consistent with the terms of this Protective Order. Each 22 receiving party shall further notify every person or organization that received copies of or access to 23 the material identified in the notice that such material contains CONFIDENTIAL 24 INFORMATION, as defined by this Protective Order.

25 15. No Waiver of Privilege. This Protective Order does not affect or constitute a waiver of 26 any party's right to withhold or redact information protected from disclosure by the attorney-client 27 privilege, work product doctrine, or other applicable legal privilege. Inadvertent production 28 of confidential documents subject to work-product immunity, the attorney-client privilege, or other

1 legal privilege protecting information from discovery shall not constitute a waiver of the immunity 2 or privilege. The party discovering the inadvertent production shall promptly notify the receiving 3 party in writing when it becomes aware of such inadvertent production. Within five (5) court days 4 of receiving such notice, such inadvertently produced documents and all copies thereof, as well as 5 all notes or other work product reflecting the contents of such materials, shall be returned to the 6 Producing Party or destroyed, upon request, and such returned or destroyed material shall be 7 deleted from any litigation-support or other database. No use shall be made of such documents 8 during deposition or at trial, nor shall they be shown to anyone who was not given access to them 9 prior to the request to return or destroy them, unless otherwise permitted by the Court.

10 15.1 No less than twenty (20) court days after providing notification of inadvertently 11 disclosed information, the Producing Party shall produce a privilege log listing such information.

12 15.2 The receiving party may move the Court for an order compelling production of the 13 inadvertently disclosed information. Such motion shall be filed under seal in accordance with 14 Local Rule 79-5 and shall not assert as a ground for entering such an order the fact or 15 circumstances of the inadvertent production. On any such motion, the Producing Party shall retain 16 the burden of establishing its privilege or work product claims. Nothing in this paragraph shall 17 limit the right of any party to petition the Court for an in camera review of the inadvertently 18 disclosed information.

19 16. Order Survives Termination of Action. This Protective Order shall remain in full force 20 and effect and survive the entry of any other order resulting in termination of this Action, unless 21 this Protective Order is expressly modified or vacated by the Court, with all parties and non-parties 22 who have produced Confidential Information having had notice and an opportunity to be heard.

23 17. Disposition of Protected Materials. After the final conclusion of this Action, and to the 24 extent permitted by law, the Parties, their counsel, and Consultants who have received 25 PROTECTED MATERIAL from another party or non-party shall either return or destroy all 26 materials designated as PROTECTED MATERIAL, including copies, extracts, and summaries 27 thereof, within sixty (60) days of the request to do so. This provision does not apply to (1) copies 28 of any pleadings or other papers that have been filed with the Court; (2) any work product deemed

1 “Confidential”; or (3) any documents designated “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION” with 2 respect to which confidentiality has been successfully challenged in accordance with paragraph 19, 3 below. The party or non-party which produced the PROTECTED MATERIAL shall keep and 4 maintain an electronic copy of all such PROTECTED MATERIAL produced in this case for a 5 period of five (5) years after the final conclusion of this case.

6 18. Court Retains Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over all persons or 7 organizations authorized under paragraph 8 to receive CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION for the 8 limited purpose of enforcing such return and enforcing the continuing obligations of confidentiality 9 imposed by this Order.

10 19. Challenges to Confidentiality Designation. If a party disagrees with the designation of 11 materials or information as “CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION,” or “HIGHLY 12 CONFIDENTIAL-ATTORNEYS EYES ONLY” the party challenging the designation, the 13 Designating Party, and any other interested party or non-party shall first try in good faith to 14 informally resolve the dispute. The party challenging the designation shall provide the Designating 15 Party and any other party or non-party a written request, by letter or email, identifying the 16 documents or information which it believes should have the designation removed and stating the 17 specific reasons that party does not believe the materials or information were properly designated.
 18 If it becomes necessary for the Court to resolve the dispute, any party or non-party seeking to 19 enforce the designation may file a motion to preserve the designation no more than ten (10) court 20 days after the parties’ informal attempts to resolve the issue have failed. Any response or reply to 21 the motion to seal, or underlying motion, shall also be filed in accordance with Local Rule 79-5. A 22 failure to file a motion within ten (10) court days shall constitute a waiver of the designation. The 23 party or non-party seeking to enforce the designation shall make its filing pursuant to Local Rule
 24 79-5. Pending the Court’s decision on the motion, the information designated as CONFIDENTIAL
 25 INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY 26 INFORMATION shall be treated as though it were CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or 27 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY INFORMATION within the meaning 28 of this Protective Order. With respect to any motions relating to the confidentiality of documents

1 or related information, the burden of justifying the designation shall lie with the party or non-party
2 seeking to enforce the designation. All parties retain the right to appeal the decision of the Court.

3 20. Subpoena by Other Courts or Agencies. If a party (or its agent, officer, employee, 4 representative, or attorney) receives a discovery request, subpoena, or other process seeking 5 disclosure of PROTECTED MATERIAL, the party shall:

6 20.1 Immediately notify in writing, via overnight mail or email, the party, person, or 7 entity who has designated the requested information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL
8 INFORMATION” or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY
9 INFORMATION that such a request has been made, shall provide a copy of the subpoena or court 10 order, and shall provide that party with an opportunity to file a motion for protective order or take 11 other appropriate action prior to producing the requested information or documents;

12 20.2 Promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue that 13 some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this agreement. Such 14 notification shall include a copy of this agreement.

15 21. Modification Permitted. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall prejudice the 16 right of any party to seek modification or amendment of this Protective Order by further Court 17 order, upon motion and notice.
